

Seton Hall-Hackensack Meridian School of Medicine

Sleep Medicine Fellowship

Annual Application Cycle

Apply in July of the current year, for fellowship which will begin one year later (in July of the following academic year).

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Program Director: Divya Gupta, MD

Program Coordinator: Lauren Li

Location: JFK-Neuroscience Institute, JFK Medical Center, 65 James Street, Edison, NJ 08818

(affiliated with Seton Hall University)

Tel: 732-321-7010 x 61685, Fax: 732-632-1584

Email: LALI@jfkhealth.org

WEBSITE: WWW.JFKMC.ORG

DESCRIPTION:

- ACGME and AASM accredited, one year, comprehensive fellowship in Sleep Medicine including respiratory, neurological and behavioral disorders of sleep, and also exposure to pediatric sleep medicine and clinical research.
- 2 positions
- Sleep Board Certified and well published, multidisciplinary faculty.
- Strong academic, clinical and didactic environment for learning.
- Excellent pass rate for Sleep Boards.
- Easily accessible and safe location, at JFK Medical Center.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Applicant should have completed ACGME approved residency in any one of the following specialties: Neurology, Internal medicine, pulmonary medicine, psychiatry or family medicine.
2. Applicant should apply for our Sleep Fellowship through ERAS (ACGME Program ID 5203318072), starting mid-July of the current-year.
3. Applicant should also register for the NRMP match program for our Sleep Fellowship (NRMP program code 3194520F0), starting mid-July of the current-year.
4. Applicants will be invited for interview at JFK Med Ctr on Thursdays, during the months of August through October of the current-year. Last day of interviews will be the 2nd Thursday in October.
5. We are unable to sponsor H-1 visa, as per institutional policy.

NOTIFICATION THROUGH NRMP MATCH: NOVEMBER OF THE CURRENT-YEAR

FELLOWSHIP BEGINS: JULY OF THE FOLLOWING ACADEMIC YEAR